- Must also be able to communicate his/her vision clearly to others, i.e. be able to explain to actors how different scenes should play out, or explain to designers the ideas for sets and costumes.
- Should be punctual, enthusiastic, pleasant, and level-headed.
- Should enjoy working with students and demonstrate patience, understanding, and tact when working with students, staff, and the public.
- Should promote an atmosphere of fun and learning and serve as a role model to youth, always conducting him/herself in the utmost professional manner and maintaining appropriate boundaries.
